

Draft 2 New Zoning By-law is Available on Engage Ottawa

Draft 2 of the new Zoning By-law provisions are now available on Engage Ottawa. Draft 2 includes updated zoning provisions and an updated zoning map to reflect feedback received during consultation on Draft 1 of the by-law. The Engage Ottawa page features additional resources, such as up to date information on upcoming consultation opportunities and updates on

The New Zoning By-law - Draft 2 staff report and 16 supporting documents were received by the Joint Planning and Housing and Agriculture and Rural Affairs Committee on March 31, 2024 and City Council on April 16, 2024. The report and all supporting documents are available on the City's meeting agenda page. The Schedules to the Draft 2 by-law are available on ottawa.ca.

At both the Joint Committee and Council meetings, Members of Council provided direction to staff through several motions and directions. Appendix 1 – Overview of Motions and Directions on DevApps provides an overview of these motions and directions and the additional options to be prepared for consultation through the spring and summer.

The New Zoning By-law team is seeking feedback on the Draft 2 provisions and updated zoning map. This commenting period will run from May 2, 2025 to June 30, 2025. Comments submitted during this time will be considered by the project team and any resultant changes will be incorporated into Draft 3 of the by-law. Comments received following June 30 will continue to be reviewed and considered, but it may not be possible to incorporate all feedback into the final provisions.

If you have any questions or comments on Draft 2, please contact the new Zoning By-law project team via NewZoning@ottawa.ca. You can also visit the Engage Ottawa page to explore all available content and subscribe to receive further project updates.

Public engagement on Draft 2 will occur this spring, including virtual meetings on Thursday, May 29 and Tuesday, June 3 and an in-person consultation event on Monday, June 2 at Ben Franklin Place, 101 Centrepointe Drive. Check out the Engage Ottawa page for more information on these opportunities!
